

Objective Test

Name _____

Reproducible

A SEPARATE
PEACE*TRUE-FALSE If the statement is True, mark it T; if False, mark it F.

- _____ 1. Gene's attempt to "become" Finny is a search for identity which is part of his growing up process.
- _____ 2. The architecture at Devon, ornate on the outside, stern and forbidding within, reflects the duality of Gene's personality—pleasant and likable on the surface, but holding dark secrets within himself.
- _____ 3. The Athenians who defeated the stern, militaristic Spartans, seem allied to Finny because of their enjoyment of sports and beauty.
- _____ 4. At the beach, Finny goes swimming, almost a sort of baptism, but Gene refuses and surrenders to hatred and jealousy.
- _____ 5. Finny sees the war stories as a "plot" on the part of the older generation.
- _____ 6. After Finny's death, the last vestige of peacefulness vanishes and army units appear.
- _____ 7. The Super Suicide Society of the Summer Session is Finny's idea, but he includes Gene and Leper as charter members.
- _____ 8. The novel actually "ends at the beginning" because it is told in a flashback style of narrative.
- _____ 9. Devon's two rivers reflect the good and evil combined in human nature.
- _____ 10. After the peaceful interlude at Devon, Gene faces his first experience with conflict when he joins the army.

MULTIPLE CHOICE Choose the phrase that best completes each sentence.

- _____ 11. Gene puts on Finny's clothes to
- "be" Finny.
 - celebrate the bombing of central Europe.
 - play a trick on him.
 - show the others that Finny is his best friend.
- _____ 12. The first Devon boy in the class of '43 to enlist is
- Gene.
 - Quackenbush.
 - Brinker.
 - Leper.
- _____ 13. "Yellow Peril" is a nickname for
- Elwin Lepellier.
 - Brinker Hadley.
 - Naguamsett.
 - Cliff Quackenbush.
- _____ 14. At the beach Finny tells Gene
- "I didn't know you needed to study."
 - "You're my best friend."
 - "I know you're jealous of me."
 - "Why don't we enlist together?"